

Your child's anxiety or attention issues don't disappear just because school's out.

Having your child evaluated for mental health and learning concerns now gets you the tools you need to be ready for September.

Join our no-cost mental health and learning study.

Participants receive:

- Study-related comprehensive diagnostic evaluation
- Report that may help obtain 504 plan/IEP
- Treatment and service referrals
- Up to $150 compensation

Request your child's no-cost evaluation today at healthybrainnetwork.org

Thank you for helping me understand what's going on with my son.
